Hearings On Phone Rates Start

Public hearings opened in Los Angeles yesterday on a rate increase request by the California Water & Telephone Co.

If the increase is permitted, telephone service rates in this area will be boosted from $3.35 monthly to $3.75 for a four-party line and from $4.75 to $5.35 for one-party service.

The new two-party business rate would be $10; one-party business, $12.45.

The company, which is requesting additional annual revenues of $1,500,000, argued that its payroll has more than doubled in the past four years, local property taxes have tripled and the costs of material and supplies are 30 per cent higher than in 1952.

The company applied last December to the Public Utilities Commission for permission to increase rates throughout the telephone division.

Need Seen For Library Budget Hike

A new librarian and a larger budget are necessary if the Sierra Madre Library continues growing at its present pace, Webster Vannier, Library Board chairman, reported Monday.

Mr. Vannier and William Noel, Water Department superintendent, spoke Monday before members of the Civic Service Group in the Woman's Clubhouse.

The present library staff, Mr. Vannier said, is being worked overtime answering questions and handling the books. Another librarian, at least a part-time one, is badly needed.

The Board, he said, has asked for $25,000 from the new city budget, about $2,000 more than was granted last year.

One of the Library Board's biggest jobs, he said, is the annual selection of some 1,100 books out of 10,000. Concerning the banning of certain books, Mr. Vannier said:

"If a book passes the obscenity laws and if enough people want it, I feel we should have it in our library. The Library Board has no more right to tell you what you should read than does your neighbor."

Mr. Noel said that Sierra Madre's water supply is adequate to accommodate a population increase of from 1,000 to 3,000.

He reported that 105 new meters have been installed this year, 50 more than expected.

COME LATE this summer the area in the city water grounds shown above should be jammed with splashing children and adults enjoying Sierra Madre's new swimming pool. When this picture was taken last Friday morning, C & H Contractors apparently were about half-way through the excavation work. The pool, which will be 40 by 90 feet, will cost approximately $80,000, including the bathhouse.

VFW Out After Blood — Yours!

A "Come as You Are" dance — everybody welcome — will be held Saturday night from 8:30 to 1:30 at VFW Post 3208.

Reason for the party, besides the fun, is to remind veterans and their friends that the Bloodmobile is due in town Monday. The VFW Post needs blood in its account.

Pasadena Board Candidates Speak Here May 28

The nine candidates running for three seats on the Pasadena Board of Education have been invited to speak before members and guests of the Coordinating Council May 28 at 8 p.m. in the Sierra Madre School.

James McCoy, council president, said that so far six of the candidates have promised to appear.

Candidates are Miss Mabel Fossler, Mrs. Donald LaMotte, Laurel V. McElwain, Malcolm F. Meguire, John H. Poole, Steven M. Salisian, Walter T. Shatford II, James H. Sibbet and Don A. Winston.

Record School Vote Seats Hugh Colvin

The largest vote on record in School Board history put Hugh Colvin, Consolidated Electrodynamics head, into the vacant School Board post Friday with a whopping victory over his nearest opponent, Kenneth Cleaver, Eagle Rock attorney.

Of 782 votes polled, Mr. Colvin received 487—a more than 2 to 1 lead over Mr. Cleaver's count of 213. Claude H. Brown, Pasadena manufacturer, received 56 votes. Pasadena attorney G. Norman Kennedy polled 26.

Reason for the large vote turn-out for a single candidacy with no economic propositions, probably lay with recent religious issues which faced the Board and stirred the town.

Also the probability of a bond issue to enlarge school facilities undoubtedly prompted concerned citizens to take to the polls.

MONDAY NIGHT Mr. Colvin sat with the Board in executive session as it dealt with personnel matters. He and Lowell Jackson, incoming school superintendent, will be Board observers until they take their positions in June.

In a statement to The News yesterday, Mr. Colvin said:

"This was a very interesting election from the standpoint of the remarkably large turn-out of voters and the interest of many Sierra Madre citizens in attending pre-election meetings.

"I felt there were no marked differences on issues among the several candidates," he continued, "and that perhaps the election

MRS. PETE MARINO and her husband are now running the Sierra Madre Hotel. The hotel was leased to the Marinos early this month by Mrs. Helen R. Keating, who operated it for 22 years.

Graveside Rites Held Today for Arthur T. Evans

Graveside services for Arthur Thomas Evans will be held this afternoon at 2:30 at Mountain View Cemetery in Altadena.

Mr. Evans, a former resident of Sierra Madre for 11 years, passed away Monday of a heart attack in his Lancaster home. Funeral services were held earlier today at the Lancaster Methodist Church.

Son of W. A. Evans who resides at 397 W. Montecito, Mr. Evans was active in the Congregational Church while living in Sierra Madre. He had Masonic and scouting affiliations in Lancaster.

He is survived by his wife, Ellen; his father; a sister, Florence Evans of Pasadena; sons Preston Evans of Whittier and Edwin Evans of Lancaster. He also leaves three grandchildren.

Author Holling Speaks Again At Library

Holling C. Holling, one of the best known authors of juvenile books, will give a talk Saturday, June 1, at 3 p.m. in the Library Community Room.

Mr. Holling spoke here a year ago to such an overflow crowd of children that he was asked to make a return performance.

Junior Friends of the Library sponsors the program which is open to all young people.

Festivities began Friday, day before the natal day, when the Royal Grill and the Wistaria Bake Shop combined efforts and provided Mr. Bonebrake with a birthday cake at the grill. Friends were on hand to take part in congratulations and, incidentally, the cake.

Mr. Bonebrake was born May 18, 1878, in Los Angeles when the population numbered 10,330, and grew up during a time of fabulous growth for the city.

His father, George H. Bonebrake, was president of the Los Angeles National Bank and director of 11 others. He was also president of the California Southern Railroad and a director of the Santa Fe Railroad.

PERCY, himself, grew up on the corner of Figueroa and West Adams, where the Automobile Club now stands. There, of a morning, he used to salute former Gov. Pio Pico as he rode by.

Mr. Bonebrake has lived in Sierra Madre for the past 28 years. He has written and lectured on early days in the West when he was a deputy U.S. marshal, special agent for the U.S. Treasury and a cattleman throughout New Mexico and Arizona.

SUNDAY ROUNDED up festivities when Mr. Bonebrake was guest of honor at a family dinner. Guests included his only living daughter, Mrs. Emma B. Smith, who is the great-granddaughter of Don Luis Arguello, governor of California before it became a part of the United States.

Other guests included his grandsons, Norman Punter of Anaheim and Bud Creswell of Woodland Hills; and his granddaughter and her husband, Mr. and Mrs. Eugene McDaniels of Rivera, and Mrs. Florence R. Thayer.

2,000 Expected At City Breakfast Here

Service Set In New Bethany

First services in the new Bethany Church at Baldwin and Montecito will be held at 11 a.m. and 7 p.m. this coming Sunday. Dr. Robert Schaper, pastor, will preach at both services.

"This is a significant step forward in the life of this community church," Dr. Schaper said. "It has been part of the life of Sierra Madre for the past 38 years."

The new structure is designed to accommodate more than 600. The balcony, seating almost 200, is not at present completed, but is planned for the near future.

The church is of functional design with special emphasis on a feeling of reverence as well as intimacy in participation. The 45-seat choir is in an arc centering on the pulpit. The auditorium is wide and comparatively short, which makes the audience closer to the focal point of attention.

A new feature will also be the pipe organ, given as a memorial to Mrs. Eleonore Munde Patterson. The intricate installation will delay its operation until June 2. It is a three-manual, 16-rank instrument, purchased by the church nearly three years ago from the Kling residence in Pasadena.

The formal dedication service will be sometime in June. The Board of Trustees announced that the dedication will be made when the final amounts of money for the concluding payment to the contractor have been received.

This past week marked the completion of the sale of the church building notes issued a little over a year ago. A report of the entire financial arrangements in regard to the church structure will be given this coming Sunday.

TRUST OFFICER

First Western Bank and Trust Co. yesterday announced the appointment of Berton T. Goble as trust officer at the bank's Pasadena Main Office.

Don't Forget Blood Bank On Monday

You can give badly needed blood to the American Red Cross blood bank from 3 to 7 p.m. Monday in the Woman's Clubhouse.

For mothers of small children, the Community Nursery School will provide free baby sitting service. (See photo on Page 1, Section 2.) The Red Cross hopes to collect 150 pints of blood in Sierra Madre.

Appointments may be made by phoning the Red Cross, ELgin 5-0745, between 10 and 12 noon and 1 and 3 p.m., Monday through Friday. At other times phone ELgin 5-1266 for appointments.

Liberty Dollars on Sale for 89 Cents

Sierra Madre's community breakfast is scheduled June 8 in the City Park, complete with hotcakes, movies, a helicopter rescue by the Search and Rescue Squad, and 2,000 shining silver dollars, vintage 1890.

The most ambitious project of this kind ever attempted in Sierra Madre, the breakfast's generous sponsors hope to attract at least 2,000 guests. Hours will be from 7 a.m. to 1 p.m. (See photo on Page 1, Section 2.)

The affair is being sponsored by the Sierra Madre Kiwanis Club and the local Search and Rescue Crew.

TICKETS ARE $1 each, and if you attend between 11 a.m. and 1 p.m., you may buy one of the 1890 silver dollars, never before in use, for 89 cents. The gimmick, of course, is that you must also purchase a breakfast ticket.

The Liberty dollars, which are fairly scarce, were obtained by E. R. Mitchell, manager of the First Western Bank & Trust Co. in Sierra Madre. They are 67 years old and have never been in circulation.

The sponsors, "having concluded that Sierra Madre is blessed with peace and tranquility," also are offering: One delicious breakfast (it says here) from 7 a.m. to 1 p.m.

One essay contest for all school children from the sixth grade or under.

One helicopter rescue by the Sierra Madre Search and Rescue Crew.

One motion picture at 10, 11 and 12 o'clock.

FOR PERSONS in dire financial straits or with gargantuan appetites, terms may be arranged, according to Postmaster Charles Louk, who is handling publicity. Terms are:

"On all sales of $10 and under, cash. A credit of nine months will be given on sales over $10 on bankable notes drawing 6 per cent interest, if paid when due; if not to draw 10 per cent interest from date; 2 per cent discount for cash on time sales. No property removed until settled for."

Advance ticket sales are being handled by Felix Gibian, ELgin 5-0887, and Robert Lane, ELgin 5-7221.

Hastings Man Hangs Self In Garage

Frank Norris, 40-year-old project engineer, hanged himself in the garage of his Hastings Ranch home Monday night, apparently despondent over a recent drunk driving arrest.

His body was found suspended from a rafter in his garage at 1315 N. Hastings Ranch Drive by his wife, Cecily. She summoned Pasadena police who attempted to revive him by artificial respiration. The Pasadena Fire Department rescue squad also worked over him with an inhalator, but to no avail.

Pasadena police records showed that Norris had been arrested the week before on a drunk driving charge. It was also revealed that he had a record of drunk and drunk driving arrests in other Los Angeles area communities.

Services were to be held this morning at Church of the Ascension in Sierra Madre with Father Harley Smith Jr. officiating. Body of the Russian-born World War II veteran will be interred in Ft. Rosecrans Cemetery in San Diego.

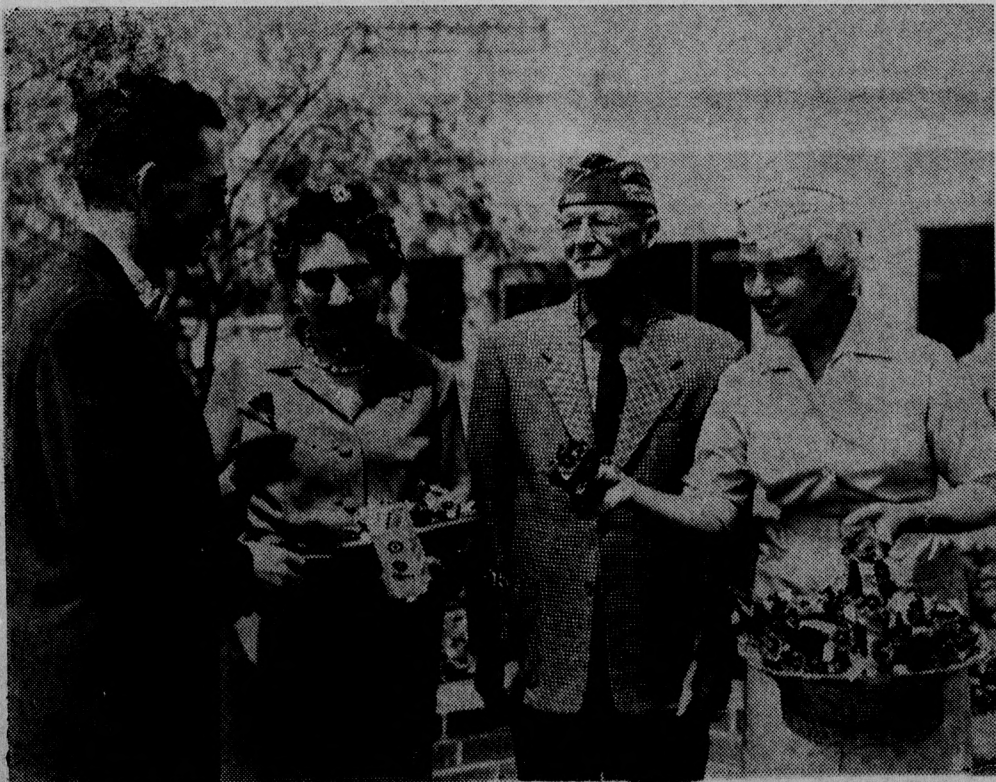

Besides his wife, Norris is survived by four children and his mother, Mrs. Xenia Norris of New York City.

Fred Francis Captures Legion Essay Contest

Fred Francis, 11-year-old student at Ascension School, has won the all-Sierra Madre essay contest on Americanism, sponsored by the American Legion.

His essay, entitled "Statue of Liberty," will be entered next in the district contest. Fred is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Richard W. Francis, 36 W. Mira Monte.

Mr. Francis is West Coast representative of the publishing firm of J. B. Lippincott Co. His mother teaches remedial English at Anoka.

CITY ADMINISTRATOR Lawrence C. Bevington gets a head start by buying the first poppy in advance of the Poppy Day sale Friday and Saturday. Representing the American Legion Auxiliary, the Veterans of Foreign Wars and VFW Auxiliary, sponsors, are Mrs. Helen Wheeler, Harry Holland and Mrs. Barbara Heasley (right). These organizations also are sponsoring the Memorial Day Parade Thursday starting at 9:30 a.m. at the City Park and ending at the cemetery. Col. Walter D. Thurber will speak at the park for the fifth consecutive year. All area children have been invited to participate in the parade.

CITY-WIDE Paint-Up, Fix-Up, Clean-Up campaign was officially started in the business district early last Sunday morning in a sidewalk cleaning marathon during which 62 businessmen and women wielded mops and brooms. Editorials

Don't Be Apathetic

Nothing is worse for a city—like a person—than the "I don't care" attitude. And a city is, after all, only the sum total of its parts, people, you and I.

With your Chamber of Commerce sponsored Clean Up-Paint Up-Fix Up time approaching, it is time for us individually and collectively to rig ourselves of any indifference and get ready to support the coming campaign.

If we continue to dump trash on that vacant lot down the block, scatter fruit peels and wrappers from car windows, and ignore garbage and trash regulations, we will soon have a reputation for messy unconcern.

Tourists, visitors, new businesses are not attracted to that kind of city any more than you want to become better acquainted with an untidy person.

Let's each make a firm resolution to obey our city's disposal ordinances, stop littering streets and sidewalks, and otherwise blighting our collective property.

If we do, and then clean, paint, and repair our individual share of the city, whether it be room, apartment or house, apathy's curse will be soundly defeated by energy's dividends.

During Clean-Up weeks we are doing for ourselves what we require our city officials to do for us collectively—protect our health through cleanliness, assist us against fire, add to the beauty of our community.

The general responsibility for health, safety and protection of property we have placed upon our officials but the specific and vital reinforcement of these functions remains with us. Our American tradition stresses the importance—and the responsibility—of the individual.

From the Clean-Up program children can learn basic civic responsibilities, provided we adults participate fully and actively teach this civic lesson. We may find more than a few lessons of neighborly assistance and cooperation ourselves. Our practical citizenship course is now available.

Let's take advantage of it.

Farm Appropriation Bill Stirs Violent Floor Fight

By Edgar W. Hiestand, Rep. 21st District

It's turning hot in Washington, and I'm not talking merely about the weather, although that's bad enough. It's turning hot in the halls of Congress, where the battle of economy versus spending is being fought with no holds barred.

Last week the House considered the Agriculture Department's appropriation bill. The floor fight was one of the most violent I've witnessed in Congress. In the end we managed to defeat a program for subsidizing the farmer for not planting a part of his acreage in 1958. With the defeat came a potential saving of $500 million for taxpayers, provided the Senate maintains the cut.

Enacted last year, the program was set up to run until 1960 with the aim of cutting surplus farm production and encouraging conservation of land. It was proposed as an "emergency measure" only, with even its backers admitting to its economic unfeasibility.

With this narrow victory the "economy bloc" which I helped to organize has shown its growing strength. To win we had to muster votes from both sides of the aisle. The final vote was 192 to 187 against the appropriation.

What will happen to the program in the Senate is uncertain. However, recent indications show that the Senate has caught the economy fever. It has backed up the House cuts consistently; in fact, has added to the cuts. We're hoping this one will stick.

ONE GLIMPSE of why Congress is having so much difficulty passing the recommendation of the Hoover Bipartisan Commission came last week during consideration of the Agriculture appropriations.

We had fought hard for an amendment which would have taken out of the appropriations some $179 million for increasing the lending authority for rural electrification. Today 96 percent of farms in the country are electrified. Moreover, several weeks ago the House slipped in $200 million for this purpose on a supplemental appropriation. I couldn't see how another $179 million—a direct drain on the taxpayers—could be justified.

But we hit a sensitive spot in arguing against the $179 million. The whole farm bloc arose in its wrath in defense of the Rural Electrification Administration, and we were badly beaten.

In Honored Memory

Around the Square

By Marjorie Parker

Don't despair of having missed the epiphany show at Coolidge's Rare Gardens. You haven't. Because of the long, cool Spring the exhibition flowers have not reached peak bloom and will not for another week or so if this grey stuff stays around.

Of those already flowering though, Star of Tunisia is the most magnificent—crimson, cerise and gold center. Almost violent. And this year, for better showing, the plants are trained upon small trellises ala espalier so one need not hang upside down to see the blossoms.

Epiphany presents an annual paradox—that from such drab beaver-tail and rat-tail plants can come such splendor. They are natives of Mexico, Central and South America and, according to the encyclopedia, differ from all other forms by being epiphytic in habit. Now you know.

THAT MINK stole you may have glimpsed going through town was on Gina Velasquez, wife of artist Ted. She won it—WON it—at the fashion show given by St. Rita's Guild at the Ambassador.

Upon being revived, Mrs. Velasquez said she was happy about the whole thing.

IN THE NEW issue of "West" magazine, now on the stands, is a short story by Howard Miller.

SOME KIND of an award for renewing faith in small girls should go to the small girl who came to the door last week and softly asked, "Would you perhaps be interested in buying some pollywogs? I am raising a very nice batch."

A NOTE from John Caruthers on the engaging work of the Neuhaus at the Library: "The Neuhaus (Mr. and Mrs.) are both teaching, he at L. A. State College (typography) and she at UCLA (design). They bought a small hand press and began doing limited jobs for friends on a non-profit basis. Included in the local exhibits are several pieces from their latest project, a children's ABC book called alpha-beasties.

Three pieces from their hand press were included in the National Printing Show this year."

Note back to John: Jim Stevens of the Balinese Shop is coming over to see the alpha beasts. They are as exciting as Charles Eames design cards.

THIS from the New York Times:

"Pola-Cola, the Polish Communists answer to Yankee cola drinks, was due to bubble onto the Warsaw market next week. Its advertisements were lively with pretty girls. Pola-Cola had already hit the spot in Lodz and Stettin. Last week the campaign went flat. The Warsaw Sanitary and Epidemiology Department ruled that Pola-Cola was bad for the heart. Too much caffeine. Therefore there would be no Pola-Cola in Warsaw. Among the many protests was one from the city's anti-alcoholic committee: it had been counting on Pola-Cola as a promising new weapon in its fight against vodka." Dreamers!

Candid Comments . . .

Praises Rescue Crew For Unselfish Endeavor

By Fred Edmunds

Professional writers are somewhat like professional speakers. They'll go to "work" on only a mere indication of prompting. Which, of course, is one reason why American journalism, like the public platform, has an abundance of talent.

And, in most cases, this talent can surmount any assignment. That's why, recently, I was interested to read Mr. Shippey's remark that he was having difficulty in finding a subject for his column since he was temporarily devoid of anything to criticize.

ENJOYING a sunny walk around the triangular square recently, I drifted off the Kersting Ct. sidewalk for a cup of coffee (no commercial intended) and picked up a newspaper from that alien area of Los Angeles. On the sports pages, the editors had featured a closeup photo of an umpire calling a base runner "out" at second—and his eyes were closed as if in nocturnal slumber.

This confirms a suspicion of a great many baseball fans, eh?

SIERRA MADRE'S Mountain Rescue Team gained the front pages of Southern California newspapers recently with their efforts to locate the missing 16-year-old youth who dropped out of sight on another of those hiking expeditions. This should be a source of great pride to residents of this area and I would like to publicly praise the volunteer members of this organization for their wonderful work in proving again that all endeavor is not the selfish variety; that some men among us still possess a sense of responsibility toward their associates in this life of ours.

INCIDENTALLY, speaking of help, perhaps you would like to help me. I'm starting a file of inmate remarks, made publicly by our politicians and distributed either via radio, television or newspapers. You might send me your "candidate remarks" with reference as to publication and date. There have been some doers lately, too.

SHORT NOTES: Wonder what happened to that "smogless gasoline" that Smith Griswold proudly announced some weeks ago. Haven't heard anything else on the subject and you can't buy it. . . I hope the genius that promoted these new left turn lanes has received due credit and reward. In my opinion, this is the most beneficial boon to motoring mankind that has come along since Henry Ford put us on black wheels.

American Medical Association think of that?

And writes "T.R.B." in The New Republic, "It is a further affront to the U.S. that the Canadian dollar is worth more than ours under the Republicans."

Watch on the Potomac

By Robert G. Spivack

CIVIL RIGHTS—WHAT'S THE SCORE?—Four months ago it seemed almost certain that the Administration's mild civil rights legislation would glide easily through both houses of Congress and be on the President's desk for signature by Easter.

Now Easter has come and gone and the civil rights legislation is in deep trouble. What's happened and why?

Part of the answer is that Dixie lawyers have gone to work on the legislation with a vengeance. Northern Republicans have sat by expressing admiration for their opponents' skill at maneuvering while doing little to back up the President's requests for early action. The lawyers have injected a note of doubt about the legislation, claiming that it deprives citizens of the right of trial by jury.

On top of that the White Citizens Councils (1957 version of the KKK) have become so powerful in the South in that area dare even suggest that "moderate" legislation might ease racial tensions. To oppose the WCCs is to invite violence.

ACTUALLY all the Administration's legislation would do is modernize methods of enforcing existing civil rights legislation. It doesn't really propose any new laws.

The laws which have been on the books since Civil War days have proved ineffective because Southern juries, packed in many cases, would not vote for conviction where lynch mobs have acted. Nor would they convict where Negroes have been deprived of the right to vote or otherwise been deprived of "equal protection under the law."

What the new legislation does is by-pass the maze of state administrative agencies and state courts and give a civil rights complainant the right to go directly into federal court. It also empowers the Justice Department to file civil suits whenever it has reasonable grounds for believing anyone's civil rights are violated.

When one recalls the Emmett Till case and other violent episodes in recent times one wonders if the Dixie demagogues aren't deliberately prolonging the argument to keep the cash rolling into the coffers of the WCCs?

And speaking of the WCCs questions are being asked why the Senate Internal Security Committee hasn't looked into their activities and the whole pattern of violence in the South. Is the committee chairman, Sen. Eastland, "protecting" some one?

IS CANADA A MENACE? In all the furor over the suicide of Canadian Ambassador Norman there were some pretty violent and silly things said North and South of the border. Now one writer comes along, tongue-in-cheek, with a suggestion that "the real threat to U.S. institutions is from Canada, not Russia."

Why? Well, it seems our northern neighbor plans to provide government hospital insurance for its citizens. No citizen need die any longer because he can't afford a hospital bed. What will the

Lee Shippey asks
What Do You Think?

"Confidential Magazine"

seems to be utterly contemptible, but Liberace also seems utterly ridiculous. It surprises me that his $25,000,000 damage suit against "Confidential" gets such wide publicity from press and radio, as it seems patently filled for publicity purposes. No jury would seriously consider such an amount and lots of juries might feel it would be impossible to damage the pianist more than one-tenth that much. One can't resist the suspicion that Liberace's publicity man is joyfully making the most of the so-called painful situation.

LINDA CHRISTIAN, too, doesn't seem to be missing any bets. If I remember rightly, Linda was the gal who, a year or so ago, accepted about $100,000 worth of jewelry from her fiancé and then, when he couldn't pay for it, refused to return it or pay for it, saying it was a gift and only the giver was responsible.

TWICE in recent years swarms of bees have invaded our home and we had to hire pest-control men to get them out. Recently it looked as if once more bees were about to make their home in our attic. I saw no way to stop them and, being a thrifty Scot, was grieving about that to my good neighbor, Les Luxon. Les, who knows lots more than I do, brought out what looked like a little bottle with a funny screw top.

"Put some Chlordane in this bottle," he said. "Then attach an ordinary garden hose to it and turn on the water. The suction of the water makes the Chlordane mix with it, and you can have either a misty cloud to spray garden shrubs or a small stream you can shoot at objects 30 feet away. Shoot that stream up where the bees are and see what happens."

Well, I did, and the bees left for parts unknown. Then ants threatened to invade us, so I sprayed them, and we haven't seen an ant since. All that besides being death to garden pests makes me tell of that little gadget—which costs less than $3—as public service for bees and ants are problems to many of us. It was a Haysette spray gun, made in Pasadena.

WE HEAR a lot of talk of "waging peace," but it seems to me the administration nullifies all its peaceful gestures. Suppose in our town there was an overgrown, awkward, stupid but powerful man you suspected of villainous tendencies, yet you belonged to the same club and had to have many dealings with one another. Would it help any if every day you or one of your main backers would announce:

"We've just invented a new weapon with which we can wipe out that son of a gun and all his tribe. Of course we only invented it for self-defense, because he's such a treacherous, lying, unspeakable double-crosser, we can't trust him." Wouldn't that convince our potential enemy that we were gunning for him? Wouldn't there be danger that fear of us would make him strike the first blow, when we weren't looking, and so start a fight neither of us wanted? I believe in keeping strong, and alert—and QUIET. It isn't waging peace when even our President's speeches are veiled threats of our great power.

Dolma, Pilaf Are Favorites Of John Avedesian Family

By Toni Maurin
SY. 7-9634

When I asked Mrs. Rose Avedesian of 11 E. Bonita for a recipe I started a family conclave. They all had a hand in deciding which were her best recipes, and I can well understand why, as I had to choose from several she submitted.

DOLMA
3 bell peppers
4 firm tomatoes
2 medium zucchini squash
1 lb. ground lamb shoulder
1/4 cup rice
1 small onion chopped fine
1 tablespoon chopped parsley
salt and pepper to taste
1/2 can tomato sauce
Wash all the vegetables. Scoop out the centers of the green pepper, cut squash in half and scoop centers. Do same with tomatoes. Knead the meat with the rice, onion, parsley and salt and pepper. Fill the hollows of the vegetables with the meat mixture. Arrange side by side in dutch oven, add the tomato sauce to a pulp from the centers of the squash and tomato with half a can of water. Pour over vegetables, cover and bake in medium 350° F. oven for 1 to 1 1/2 hours.

NOODLE AND RICE PILAF
(Good With Dolma)
1 cup long grain rice
1 coil Vermicelli (noodle)
1/4 lb. butter
2 1/2 cups boiling water
2 1/2 tsp. salt.

Use a heavy pan with a tight fitting lid. Slowly melt butter in pan. Break up Vermicelli into pieces and fry in butter until slightly brown, stirring constantly. Wash and drain rice well and then add to the Vermicelli and saute them together for a few minutes, always stirring. Then add the boiling water and salt. Cover and cook on low fire for 20 minutes. When water is all absorbed and rice is soft take off the fire and let rest for 10-15 minutes before serving. Stir gently to distribute butter.

MRS. AVEDESIAN was born in Armenia, now a state in the Soviet Union. Her father, as she puts it, saw the handwriting on the wall and moved his family to America and to California, arriving here Christmas week of 1924.

After her marriage she lived in Los Angeles until John, her husband, discovered Sierra Madre nine years ago and decided that this was definitely the place to raise children. They moved out here shortly afterwards and have made themselves

Social and Club Activities

a definite part of our community.

Their 15-year-old son Greg is a senior at Marshall, and has played on the football team, has been chosen for the senior play and is the assembly commissioner. Janice, their 11-year-old daughter, will graduate from Sierra Madre School this June.

Mrs. Avedesian has done her share in PTA work, Girl Scouts and in the Woman's Club, and is much too modest in the work she has done in these groups.

Catholic Women Convene Today

The last meeting of the year of the Deane Archdiocesan Council of Catholic Women will be called to order by the president, Mrs. Howard D. Lane of Arcadia, this morning at 10:30 a.m. in Don Bosco Technical High School, South San Gabriel. Mrs. R. J. Taillac, 425 W. Orange Grove, Sierra Madre, home and school committee chairman will be among those giving final reports.

Historical Society To Hear Report On New Officers

Members of Sierra Madre Historical Society will hear the report from the nominating committee, Miss Elizabeth Steinberger, chairman, Mrs. Rudolph Hartman and Mrs. Helen Hutton, on the slate of officers for the coming year, when they meet next Saturday at 2 p.m. in the Community Room at Sierra Madre Library for their annual meeting.

A portion of the meeting will be devoted to recognition of the passing of Con- vers Twycross, secretary, treasurer of the organization for the past seven years.

R. G. McMillan Visits Family

T/Sgt. and Mrs. Ronald G. McMillan and their two month old daughter, Rhonda arrived last Tuesday for a visit with his parents, Chief of Police and Mrs. Gordon G. McMillan, 368 Mariposa. It is the first time the McMillans have seen their new granddaughter.

Sgt. McMillan has been stationed at Hill Airforce Base near Ogden, Utah. He is currently enjoying a 30-day leave before reporting for duty in the Azores. His family will join him at a later date.

On the Trails...

History of Sierra Madre Range Too Long Neglected

By Bill Work

It is a source of great regret to the members of the Search and Rescue Team to see so little being done to record the stories of events in the life and history of Sierra Madre and its mountain range.

Why are we neglecting to preserve the relics of yesterday, mark the historical spots and keep alive the traditions of the past?

We are now in the fourth generation from those early pioneers. Only a few, very few, of the second generation remain, and with their passing will go the colorful stories of our pioneer days.

THE PIONEERS of our town were also the pioneers of the hills, and it is sad that our trails, rich in mountain history, are gradually crumbling away. No more can we enjoy the waterfalls, streams, meadows, and mountain glades, a scant three miles from our back door.

Gone is the historic and beautiful Mount Wilson Trail, built by the Mexican Indian help of Don Benito Wilson, in order to reach the high peak, for lumber from the stands of Sugar Pine and Incense Cedar that abound there.

Gone is the Halfway House, built by a tumbling stream while the trail was being constructed. Later it was called Orchard Camp, because of the apples, cherries and plums. For many years it was a popular resort reached by the pack trains from the old corral at the end of Mountain Trail.

HOW MANY remember, or have even heard about, Louis Newcomb, one of the first Rangers, and a famous trail builder, responsible for Newcomb's Pass, Short-Cut Canyon and his homestead at Chilao Flats.

And William Sturtevant, after whom the trail is named; Roberts, of Roberts Camp; the Hospofords of Fern Lodge; the Hogeas, of Hogeas' Camp. How many remember the strange little hermit after whom Hermit Falls were named? Even the old Zig Zag Trail is gone, and Vic Hill's cabin with it.

Few people know the exact locations of the once-famous resorts. Gone are the buildings, the pack stations and three of our most beautiful trails. Gone are the mountain people of that day and much of our colorful

HOME MARKET
Growth of the eight metropolitan areas in California is stimulating an estimated $1,697,000,000 home-building market, most of it in repairs and remodeling, according to a study by the Title Council of America, Inc.

"Frankly, I'm afraid to drive..."

Hazards of today's traffic are causing many people to stop and think about using Metro coaches in going to the office or on a shopping expedition.

Metro service between points is frequent and dependable. "Flyers" operate between Los Angeles and outlying communities to provide fast, limited-stop schedules at the two peak traffic periods.

Why not try Metro? It's the smart thing to do when you want to go places—but don't like the idea of driving through today's traffic.

Your Metro operator is a skilled driver chosen for courtesy, dependability, and character. That's why you can "ride with Metro and relax."

GOOD JELLY DOESN'T JUST HAPPEN

Good jelly doesn't just happen. It is the result of careful combination of fruit acid, pectin and sugar. Right amounts of these three put together in the proper manner will make good jelly. And there are directions and tests to help you.

FIRST STEPS
Naturally, selection of the fruit is the first step. Choose fruit that is known to have sufficient pectin to make jelly. Apples, plums, currants, quinces, grapes, and berries, except strawberries.

To make jelly with fruit that is low in pectin, you must add that ingredient by combination with another fruit or by the use of commercial pectin. Special recipes must be followed.

Next, the juice is extracted. Pick fresh fruit that is ripe and free of blemishes. Wash. Discard bruised or spoiled parts. Cut firm fruit into pieces and add water almost to cover. Slightly crush small soft fruits and add 1/4 cup water for each pound of fruit. Boil until tender. Pour hot fruit into a damp jelly bag and let it drip. Press the bag to get a maximum amount of juice. Strain juice again through a fresh jelly bag to make it clear.

TEST FOR ACID
Combine 1 tsp. lemon juice, 8 tsp. water and 1/2 tsp. sugar. Compare taste of this mixture to that of fruit juice for jelly. They should be about same tartness. If necessary, add a little lemon juice to the fruit juice.

TEST FOR PECTIN
The amount of pectin varies in fruits and in lots of the same fruit. A pectin test—even on the juice of so-called good-jelly fruits—will indicate the measure of sugar to be used for making jelly. THE TEST: Add 1 Tbsp. grain alcohol to 1 Tbsp. of cooked juice and stir slowly. (Ordinary rubbing alcohol may be used, but DO NOT TASTE as it is poison.)

Juices rich in pectin will form a large portion of jelly-like material. Juices moderately rich in pectin will form a few pieces of the jelly-like substance. Those poor in pectin will form only small flaky bits of sediment.

MEASURE THE SUGAR
Juices rich in pectin will need 3/4 C. to 1 C. sugar (the larger amount for quite sour fruits) to 1 C. juice for jelly. For juices moderately rich in pectin, use 1/2 C. sugar to 1 C. juice. Use added pectin and special recipes to make jelly from fruit juices that are low in pectin.

MAKE THE JELLY
Cooking jelly is really very easy. Simply measure the prepared juice (not more than 4 to 6 C. to a batch) into a large pan. Measure required sugar into a dry bowl.

Rapidly bring juice to a boil. Gradually stir in the sugar and keep up a rapid boil until the jelly stage is reached. As the boiling mixture nears the jelly point, the syrup will drip from the side of a spoon in two drops. At the jelly point, drops run together and slide off the edge of a spoon in a sheet. Turn off the flame as soon as this point is reached.

If

Garden Wardrobe Needs Trees, Bushes

If a garden can be said to have a wardrobe, then it might follow that the trees and shrubs are its basic ensembles, while the perennials serve as accessories to give color and interest. Perennials correctly planted can give a garden a distinct personality of its own. The perennial group is a large one, but there are several species that are particularly outstanding in California gardens. Pelargoniums (or Geraniums) bloom in some of the brightest colors in the flower kingdom—pinks, fuchsia, orange, salmon, scarlet, vermilion, purple, bronze red. Some new varieties include Lil Abner, salmon coral blotched dark brown; Bonita, lavender veined dark maroon, and Corsair, semi-dwarf, vermilion.

DELPHINIUMS bring horizontal beauty into a garden. Delphiniums are available in blues, lavender, pink lilac, royal purple, raspberry and white, in the Pacific Giants, Bellamosum, Belladonna and Chinese types. All make fine cut flowers.

Baby's Breath (Gypsophila) offers delicate, miniature flowers that will fill in gracefully between the more obvious perennials. Baby's Breath grows as a branching flower to three feet blooming in white or pink as a miniature trailer with white or pink flowers.

"Bluebells, cockle shells..." goes the child's song and Bluebells are another lovely summer perennial. The Bluebells or Bellflowers (Campanulas) are low-growing starchy flowers in white, pink and blue. They make wonderful subjects for window boxes, pots and hanging baskets.

Try "dressing up" your garden with other perennial favorites too, such as the Agapanthus, the many shades of Asters, the whites and yellows of Marguerites, the orange-red Red Hot Poker (Tritoma).

PERENNIALS will need regular watering and some feeding, according to the species you plant, says the California Association of Nurserymen. If you garden in a cold winter area, you will want to bed down your perennials before cold weather sets in; use a mulch of leaf mold or straw. Most perennials will benefit by some pinching and pruning, again depending on the species. Protect young plants from birds with wiring laid over the plants; place bait for slugs and snails.

Stop by your local nursery soon and choose several perennials to add color and interest to your garden wardrobe. Your nurseryman will have a wide variety of species in bedding plant form ready to be set into the ground. He also can supply you with fertilizer and pest controls.

Whoops, I almost let Straw Hat Week go by without a word this year. I don't know why, but it appeals to my sense of comic. There are so many weeks honoring this and that, from cats to clean streets, all of them worthy objects of attention. I have no doubt, but Straw Hat Week is just kind of for no reason at all but fun and getting our men folks into the local haberdashery to spruce up their tired wardrobes.

I think it is a wonderful idea. I don't know why men can't break loose from the ties that custom has bound them with and go in for a bit of color and dash. Think what it does for a woman's morale to have a striking new outfit. Why wouldn't it be the same for a man? Onward, men, while the iron is hot, dress up a bit!

I TALKED to Dr. and Mrs. M. H. Simmers of 3426 1/2 Barhite the other day and it seems they have become land owners in a big way. They just bought the piece of property on which they have been living and renting, which puts them in the position of owning straight through from Barhite to Fairpoint. I asked them if they still intend to build on the Fairpoint lot and they said that the plans have been shelved for the time being until they make a few changes at the newly-acquired piece of property.

MR. AND MRS. Harold Smith of 3320 Calvert Road became grandparents again on May 1. Their daughter, Doralee, and her husband, Dale Shawyer, had a little girl at the Kaiser Foundation Hospital. They named her Debra Lee. Debra has a 17-month-old brother, David. Mrs. Smith just returned home from Duarte after helping them out for a week.

MRS. PHILLIP T. Hoefler of 1747 Country Lane is busy making preparation for a trip to Honolulu to join the Doctor. She will leave sometime next month for about eight weeks but will be back for the birth of a couple of grandchildren that are expected in the family. Her son and his wife will occupy their home in their absence.

THE RALPH W. James family, and I mean the entire family, of 1215 Hartwood Point Drive, have become sports car enthusiasts. They now have two Porsches and a new Jaguar in the family. They went up last weekend to view the sports show in Santa Barbara. When they go they drive two cars and have an absolutely marvelous time. Mr. James said his son would bring the cars in the house if he could just figure out some way to manage it.

MRS. LEE S. STUTTS of 2924 Clarmey entertained at a stork shower last week honoring Mrs. Fred DeCurtins, who is expecting soon. There were about a dozen friends in attendance.

MR. AND MRS. J. Baxter Jouvenat Jr. of 3307 Fairpoint returned recently from a short rest trip down Warner Hot Springs way.

MR. AND MRS. Edward Halperin of 1490 Old House Road returned last Sunday from a four-day weekend at Catalina Island. They flew over to attend the Lions Club Convention.

MR. AND MRS. George Matthews of 1510 Sierra Madre Villa entertained Mr. and Mrs. Frank Dische and their three children, Carolyn, Marilyn and Donald, for a spaghetti dinner last Friday night.

LAST TUESDAY Mrs. Matthews had the Susana Wesley Circle of the Sierra Madre Methodist Church up for a coffee klatch. There were about 12 members present.

The Holmeses have three children, Sylvia, Johnny and Stephanie. They previously made their home in Altadena.

Those invited to the party are Mrs. Eldon A. Stires, Mrs. G. Robert Prescott, Mrs. L. Brewster Benedict, Mrs. Robert L. Farmer, Mrs. Harlan A. Dunn, Mrs. Arthur B. Shipman, Mrs. Richard A. MRS. CARL CHEADLE demonstrates an easy way for mothers of small children to give blood during the blood-mobile visit here as she hands her daughter, Elizabeth, to Mrs. Joan Tyree, a representative of the Sierra Madre Community Nursery School. The Nursery School volunteered to assist the Red Cross during the blood program in Sierra Madre Monday, May 27, at the Woman's Club-house. Members of the Trinity Presbyterian Church in Hastings Ranch may, if they wish, donate blood and have it earmarked for the church blood bank.

A TOTAL of 2,000 silver dollars, minted in 1890 and never in circulation, will be sold for 89 cents each at the community breakfast in the Sierra Madre Park June 8 from 7 a.m. to 1 p.m. To get a silver dollar, though, you must also buy one breakfast ticket. The breakfast is being sponsored by the Sierra Madre Kiwanis Club and the Sierra Madre Search and Rescue Crew. Counting the money in the First Western Bank & Trust Co. are, from left, Harry Lange, Fred La Lone, E. R. Mitchell and Bob La Lone.

Field PTA
Winds Up
Activities

Eugene Field PTA is winding up activities for the school year, with the last day of the semester, June 13, rapidly approaching.

This afternoon children will be entertained by a performing horse, the show a gift from the PTA and the Men's Committee.

The final paper drive of the year will be held on the school parking area from 8 a.m. to noon Saturday, and another grease drive is set for June 6.

The annual PTA Executive Board tea will be June 5, when all room mothers and youth group leaders, the incoming board, teachers and the school staff will be guests.

Sixth graders will be honored at a graduation party on the last day of school, with picnicking, swimming and a baseball game being arranged by Mrs. Russell Pooler, Mrs. R. J. Stubbs and Mrs. Arthur Brearley.

Games and dancing were enjoyed by Mimi Insley, Nancy Jones, Nancy Spence, Kathie Chambers, Donna Dale Castor, Carol Weigel, Karen Amber, Patsy Carley, Greg Schuler, David Whitney, Billy Bowman and the guest of honor's sister, Marilyn.

Also in attendance was Ruth's maternal grandmother, Mrs. S. Katz, who arrived two weeks ago from her home in Israel for a six-month visit in the Ranch.

Mrs. H. Russell Delahooke, 1240 Hastings Ranch Drive, was hostess at a "Just for Fun Party" last Saturday honoring Nancy Lynn Brown who will marry Tom Delahooke June 8 and Dorothy Stallings who will marry in July.

White flowers accented by pink were used in the decorations. Each bride-elect received gifts which were attached to a long pink ribbon decked with a corsage.

Forty friends and sisters in Gunelke, a sorority at Pasadena City College, were in attendance at the gala event, as well as Mrs. Pat B. Brown and Mrs. J. W. Stallings.

Mrs. John DuBois and Mrs. Richard Friend assisted the hostess.

Big things are cooking! The candidates running for student body offices are meeting in the school auditorium tomorrow during fifth period.

The PTA Father and Son All Sports Banquet was held in the cafeteria at 6:30 p.m. yesterday. The program featured Mr. William Nicholas, manager of the Los Angeles Coliseum and Pasadena School Board member, who showed interesting and exciting pictures of the recent World Olympics in Australia.

FASHIONS! One of the best fashion shows yet held at Marshall was presented yesterday by Bullock's of Pasadena. The following girls modeled:

Seventh grade: Marilyn Greger, Sylvia Hays, Lynne Milford and Judy Rice. Eighth grade: Judy Crook, Linda Lee, Molly Reddon and Susan Stromberger. Ninth grade: Carol Cleveland, Marie O'Neil, Carole Rees and Andrea Vinke. Tenth grade: Diana Duke, Carolyn De-Nike, Helen Hippenstiel and Jean Hoffman.

Among other items, stunning bathing suits, party dresses and play clothes were modeled for our benefit. We all agreed that the outfits were really beautiful.

THE ANNUAL Senior Production was presented last Thursday. The first one-act play was entitled "Lock Stock and Barrel," a comedy about summer theater experiences. Among those who presented the play were Greg Avedesian, Sue Romeis, Steve Samerjan, Stan Fryd, Jean Hendrickson, Frank Dane, Marsha McMann, Ron Leech, Carol Calderello, Lilla Gilbrach, Phil Woodward and Phyllis Walgamott.

The next play presented was written around the senior class theme—Mardi Gras. Entitled "Sweet Calypso Willie," the play told of a girl's troubles in getting out of her room, where she had been locked by her uncle, and how she became the Queen of the Mardi Gras. There were Calypso singers, a Calypso band, Calypso dancers, sword fighters, and all the color and excitement of a real Mardi Gras. Over 50 10th graders took part in this gay production. Speaking parts were taken by: James Meadows, Ron Lee, Leslie Simmonds, Ed Stewart, Sally Textor, Judy Gibson, Joanna Josephson, Tom Parks, Allan Rogers, Michael Wasgatt, James Hurt, Alan Jacobson and Mike Danchik.

H.M.S. PINAFORE" is showing at the First Congregational Church Friday, June 7 and Saturday, June 8, at 7:30 p.m. The chancel choir is putting on this always delightful number. Tickets will be sold at the door, Los Robles and Walnut.

Most interesting: June Lindman—Dennis the Menace; Sue Jordan—Dennis' girl; Mike Vacio—Ruff, and Carolyn Dawson—friend. Most original: Becki Kirkpatrick—Pedro. Most unusual: The Three Barons, Steve Smith, Dickie Cantrel and Norman Manz. All of the costumes were very good.

BONGO DRUMS and Calypso hats were in order last Friday night at Kathy Alfredo's Calypso Party.

The kids danced in rooms decorated with travel folders, posters, hats and streamers.

The results of the primary elections held May 14 were: president, Doug Dexter and Linda Dittberner; vice president, Sheila Donnell and Nancy Grant; secretary, Wendy Finkbinder was elected; entertainment, Linda Jordan was elected; hospitality, Carol Cox and Susie Mason; publications, Jan Price and Pat Smith; safety, Tony Chaitkin and Bill Lloyd; Boys' activities, Larry Kistler was elected; Girls' activities, Judy Alexander and Priscilla Watson; 10th counselor, Jenny Klausmier and Lillith Robinson; 9th counselor, Kent Eichner and Diana Miles; 8th counselor, Pam Mecher and Donna Schulz.

The final elections were held yesterday and I will give you the results next week.

ALONG WITH the elections there are always poster parties. Susie Mason had one such party Thursday. Sharon Boswell, Ray Hinkley, Larry Kistler, Pam Culp, Jimmy Lindholm, Bill Domer, Jim Moran, John Moran, Sandy MacInnes and Richard Berry attended.

Priscilla Watson also had a party. Carolyn Howell, Pat Dickson, Ditty Dittberner, Judy Vogel and Gary Palmer helped out with the poster making Tuesday night.

I also had a poster party. Larry Kistler, Bucky Bucklen, Nancy Collier, Sandy Swanson, Lynn Eichelberger, Richard Eastwood and Judy Vogel all helped make posters.

LAST FRIDAY was 10th grade costume day. The kids voted to have the theme be comic strip characters. It was really a lot of fun to watch them parade down the hall in their costumes making fools out of themselves and really having a blast doing it. The thing they enjoyed doing was making the 7th, 8th and 9th graders jealous, and they did.

During senior lunch and fourth period the contest was held on the football field. The winners were:

Funnies: Johnny Kennedy—mother, Nancy Farrell—Raggedy Ann and David Christmas—Raggedy Andy.

Most interesting: June Lindman—Dennis the Menace; Sue Jordan—Dennis' girl; Mike Vacio—Ruff, and Carolyn Dawson—friend. Most original: Becki Kirkpatrick—Pedro. Most unusual: The Three Barons, Steve Smith, Dickie Cantrel and Norman Manz. All of the costumes were very good.

Friends Gather
at P. G. Kaponyas

Mr. and Mrs. Paul G. Kaponya, 1205 Pine Bluff Dr., entertained last Saturday night at a dancing party.

In attendance were Mr. and Mrs. Alpheus L. Pruitt, Mr. and Mrs. Donald O. Clark, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Lewis, Mr. and Mrs. Andrew J. Fakas, Mr. and Mrs. James A. Gittinger and Miss Judy Schultz and escort.

New Dodgers Take Lead
In Ranch Little League

By Charles Ayres

Wally Johnson's brand new Dodgers jumped into the lead in the American division of the Hastings Little League by winning both their games in the opening week.

One of the two new entries in the extended 6-team "major" league, the Dodgers swamped the other new entry—the Tigers—10-3 in their opening game and then surprised the highly regarded Braves 5-2 to round out a highly successful week.

Meanwhile, the Reds by clobbering the Indians 13-1, kept their escutcheon clean after playing a five-inning 1-1 tie with the Braves in the opening game. As an indication of the close battle that is shaping up, the Tigers sneaked past the Yankees 12-8 and the Indians took the Yankees 7-4 to complete the first week's play.

Over in the National League the defending champion Beavers and the Stars lead the way after the first week's play with a win apiece while most of the other teams were breaking even with the exception of the Cubs and luckless Royals.

The Beavers beat the Angels 17-9, the Stars swamped the Giants 31-2, the Red Sox split, beating the Royals 22-15 and then dropping a close decision to the Giants 9-8, and the Cubs also split by losing to the Seals 9-8 and beating the Royals 16-3.

TUESDAY's action between the Angels-Seals and Beavers-Stars was rained out and will be rescheduled at the end of the season if necessary.

The week's top game was between the defending champion Braves and the Reds. Behind the tight pitching of Jay Frontino and Mike Ayres the teams battled to a 1-1 tie in a game that was called after five innings because of darkness. The game will be completed later in the season after one of their regularly scheduled games.

Ayres and Frontino also were the batting stars for their respective teams.

After a marathon first inning of walks, the Indians and Yankees settled down to a tight game that saw each team gather only one base

Brownie Troops Give Show, Welcome 3 New Members

On Friday evening, May 10, Brownie Troop 7, Mrs. Walter Richter, troop leader, gave a puppet show for parents at the home of the Gifted Eastwoods.

Mrs. Richter reviewed briefly the year's activities, and six of the Brownies described the various interesting trips that they had taken during the year.

The puppet stage was made by Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Sweet. The Brownies made up their own puppets and original skits for the show. Refreshments were served following the presentation.

BROWNIE Troop 11 invested three new members to their troop at their last meeting. The new Brownies are Donna Cline, Jeannie Elliot, and Ruby Furumasa. "Old Brownies" welcoming them into the troop are: Pat Ann Chase, Nancy Dane, Susan Gabler, Beverly Hewett, Judy Roders and Leanne Toms. Mrs. Peter Rogers and Mrs. James Hewett are troop leaders.

Other recent activities have been a nature hike at Sierra Madre Villa Park, a tour of the Arboretum in Arcadia, and participation in the Flower Show at Pritchard Hall, Congregational Church. Several prizes for arrangements were won by the Brownies.

The Mothers' Committee of the troop also welcomed new mothers Mrs. Byron Cline, Mrs. George Elliot and Mrs. Masayuki Furumasa at a special luncheon.

Troop 11 now meets every Thursday from 2:15 to 3:15 p.m. at the Parkhouse.

Santa Fe and Electronics

New electronic methods keep constant check on all freight cars moving over Santa Fe rails

New electronic wonders are contributing to precision railroading on the Santa Fe.

Take freight car locating, for instance. With our Red Ball service, we can "put the finger" any time on any one of many thousands of freight cars moving over the 13,150 miles of Santa Fe rails every day.

Information on these cars is recorded on cards which are fed into electronic machines. These "electronic brains" process the cards as fast as 2,000 per minute—and tell us within a few seconds where every car is, what it contains, where it is going.

This information is immediately available for our customers. Shippers of produce may take advantage of any changing market conditions and divert their shipments while en route to other points where markets may be more favorable.

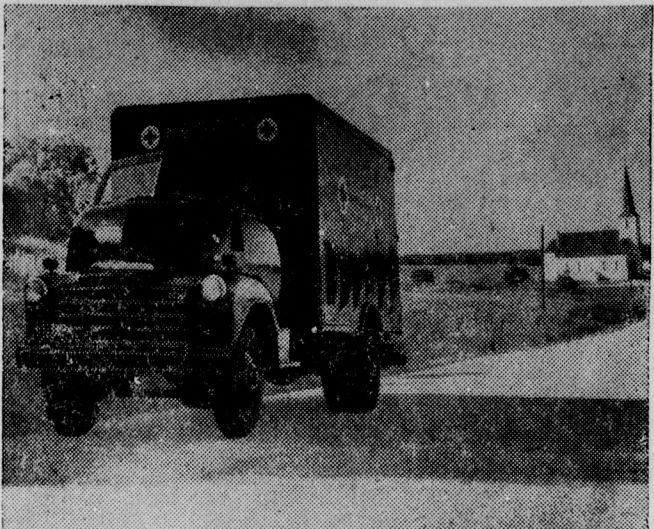

With this advice, consignees know in advance the time of arrival of their shipments. This facilitates their plans for delivery of shipments or scheduling of production.

This method of locating freight cars is only one of the many electronic tools now employed by Santa Fe. Some of the others are microwave, two-way radio, and supersonic rail detectors.

Something new in the science of railroading is a daily objective on the Santa Fe—the railroad that's always on the move toward a better way.

'Happy Pill' Danger Stems From Self-Medication

By Roy O. Gilbert, M.D.
L.A. County Health Officer

For well over two years an estimated 7,000,000 citizens of this country have been spending 135 to 150 million dollars annually on tranquilizers, or "happy pills" as they are popularly called, in order to obtain some relief from the normal strains and stresses common to everyday living.

So popular have these pills become that they are even being administered to man's best friend. The president of the American Animal Hospital Association recently reported that tranquilizers are sometimes prescribed to alleviate certain nervous conditions in dogs.

More than a dozen different kinds of these pills are now on the market, and undoubtedly more will appear. At present, not too much is known about either the values or dangers in using them, although in general the dangers seem to stem from self-medication.

EXACTLY HOW the body reacts to tranquilizers is not known. Some of them apparently block the transmission of nerve impulses to the skeletal muscles, causing them to relax. Others, it is thought, release a particular hormone within the body that may have a tranquilizing effect on certain brain centers. In any event, and whatever the effect, the use of these pills is widespread, enthusiastic and indiscriminate.

Whether or not these "happy pills" are habit forming is not yet officially determined. In the opinion of the U.S. Narcotics Commissioner, there is at present no evidence that they create addiction. On the other hand, the Expert Committee on Addiction-Producing Drugs of the World Health Organization believes that tranquilizers are potentially habit-forming.

One indication of addiction created by the continuing use of these drugs, it is said, is the withdrawal symptoms that sometimes occur in individuals after customary dosage is stopped.

It is definitely known in medical circles that the use of tranquilizers in certain individuals is not without danger, especially when they are self-administered. Some of the unwanted side effects so far reported in medical literature include jaundice, low blood pressure, skin eruptions, gastrointestinal upsets, and general toxic reactions.

Research also has shown that the pills tend to make some tense people depressed rather than calmer, and in other individuals the result can be the creation of a state of extreme excitement.

It is interesting to note that the U.S. Army Chief of Staff recently issued a four-week grounding order affecting those pilots who were taking tranquilizers more or less regularly. In the opinion of the Army medics, four weeks was the length of time for the effects of the pills to wear off.

IT IS understandable, of course, that the reflexes of pilots must be kept in tip-top condition, but the same necessity for quick physical response is relatively as important in many civilian situations. High speed traveling on crowded highways is, according to statistics, even more hazardous than flying.

Although medical opinion on the subject is far from unanimous, physicians nevertheless seem to be generally agreed that tranquilizers probably represent an important contribution to treatment methods in mental illness, as they soothe and relax highly agitated patients. It is further reported that these drugs also have been used successfully in reducing anxiety states experienced by patients who are being treated for alcoholism.

At least for the time, it is well to approach the use of tranquilizers with some caution and abstain from using them without medical advice. The day has not yet come when lasting peace of mind can be safely purchased in the form of a pill.
